Issue: Immigration Reform

Program: El Pajarete con Armida y La Flak.

Date: 1-5-16

Time: 11:45am

Description:

On today's show during our immigration segment, Attorney Jorge Rivera said that those who are married to a citizen and are petitioned by their spouse don't necessarily have to leave the country if they were never arrested by immigration when entering the country. The first step is to fill out a family petition, and then a pardon within the country therefore they don't have to leave the country.

Issue: Immigration Reform

Program: El Pajarete con Armida y La Flaka

Date: 1-6-16

Time: 11:45am

Description:

Immigration Attorney Jorge Rivera informed our listeners that although many undocumented people believe they can petition to become residents through their employer, given that they have worked for that same employer for 10 or more years this is not true. If that were the case there would be no need for the Immigration reform. Therefore those who are undocumented should be careful when it comes to choosing the proper way to petition for their residency to avoid being swindle.

Program: El Pajarete con Armida y La Flaka

Date: 1-7-16

Time: 1:00pm

Description:

During our Immigration segment Attorney Jorge Rivera let our listeners know that if at one point during their application process they are unsure if they have something bad in their record, they must request a background check. This background check will show anything that immigration can or might use against them. The record can be obtain by requesting a FOAI and filling the form G-639

Program: El Pajarete con Armida y La Flaka

Issue: Immigration Reform

Date: 1-8-16

Time: 1:00pm

Description:

During our Immigration segment Attorney Jorge Rivera let our listeners know that those who filed a petition for a sibling, immigration is currently working on those applications they received on March 1997. However the good news is that the petition not only benefits the sibling but also his or her spouse if he gets married, and also his children under the age of 21. Lastly he informed the audience that while in a process to obtain the residence there are two background checks that must be checked, therefore not to be alarm if the attorney informs you have to pay for these two because they are necessary.

Date: 1-13-16

Time: 1:00pm

Description:

On today's show Immigration Attorney Jorge Rivera went over the type of pardons Immigration department offers, and who can qualify for them. These pardons include pardon for those who committed domestic violence, fraud, or the most common one entering the country illegally. However not everyone can qualify for these pardon's, it depends on the person and their situation. For example those who do qualify for the pardon for entering the country illegally can do so by filling out the form 245-I, which gives you the opportunity to pay 1000 dollars and obtain the pardon.

Attorney and immigration specialist Jorge Rivera speaks to a woman about her situation. The woman asked for advice regarding her situation with immigration when she lived in the state of Washington she was in a relationship with a convicted subject who she then left behind but was still married to him she heard by others they were looking for her for these such reasons. She now resides in California and has three children but she wonders if she is ever going to fix papers in the future because of this situation. Jorge explains to her to have a lot of patience and look into the charges and to fix them little by little to clear that off the record if there is anything then she can proceed but first look that up by others so she can protect herself.
